Ennis is cheapest nightlife in Ireland

ENNIS is the best town in Ireland in which to have a night out without over-exercising your wallet.

The Junior Chamber International surveyed value for money in seven locations around the country.

Not surprisingly, Dublin was most expensive at €56.20.

But the exact same night out in Ennis cost just €36.25.

The survey consisted of a cinema ticket, a long neck bottle, a quarter bottle of white wine and sparkling water, nightclub entry on a Saturday night, a one-item cloakroom charge, a large curry, and a three-mile taxi journey for two after midnight.

This tame night out would cost you

€50.20 in Dun Laoghaire but only €36.25 in Ennis.

JCI National President, Suzanne Corcoran, said the survey proves that many young people are being exploited because of where they live.

"There seems to be a huge differential in the cost of night club entry around the country, especially in the cities."

She said night clubs that reward loyal clientele with discount cards should be commended and supported.
